Outdoor Full-Motion Mount

VODLF125-B2

SKU: 142191 UPC: 79379553823

Sanus VODLF125-B2 Large Outdoor Full-Motion Mount is perfect for homeowners who need a greater viewing angle. The full-motion mount extends 25in from the wall with up to 44 degrees of swivel, while VirtualAxis delivers easy tilting to obtain the right viewing angle. With a commitment to achieving the ultimate outdoor viewing experience, SANUS has added a motion lock, which is a full-motion mount feature engineered by SANUS to ensure the TV stays in the desired position. When the mount is fully retracted, it offers a slim profile that places the TV 2.74in from the wall. Users can also add an optional padlock (not included) to lock the TV in the home position and prevent theft.
